Let's Tour the World of HealthCare Foodservice!

Hosted by Morrison HealthCare at Owensboro Medical Center Food and Nutrition Services Department

Every day we see how 'Power of Food' helps boost physical and emotional health for patients, hospital staff and guests while increasing reimbursements and satisfaction scores for hospitals. We invite you to experience the efficient and effective ways the patient meal delivery systems are executed in an acute care hospital. Food Service Systems RDs, Clinical Nutrition Managers, Executive Chefs and Director of Food and Nutrition Services share the complex challenges in running a healthcare foodservice operations in today's economy while meeting or exceeding the patient and employee satisfaction.

Tour of the hospital café and experience the Wellness Initiatives put in place by Morrison HealthCare to improve the health of the hospital staff, guests and other members of the community.
