Long before the Salyers family purchased the historic Woolworth's building in Covington at the corner of Madison Avenue and 7th Street, the building was home to one of the first five-and-dime stores in the country.

After purchasing the Woolworth's building, the Salyers family began a reconstruction project that turned the five-and-dime store into a stunning wedding and event center with four beautiful ballrooms. With the Woolworth name still etched above the entrance to The Madison, the Salyers family is reminded daily of the rich history and tradition of their Madison Avenue and 7th Street building. Today, as guests enter the Grande Ballroom, many can still remember walking down the same set of stairs to Woolworth's bargain basement on shopping trips with their grandparents.

JUNGLE JIM'S INTERNATIONAL MARKET

From the beginning, Jungle Jim's was an idea bigger than the sum of its parts. Starting out as a roadside produce stand and slowly growing into what we are today has given us a unique perspective – not just on groceries and how to sell them, but what kind of experience that should be. Jungle Jim himself has always been a bit larger than life, so starting small only means we appreciate where we are now that much more.

With two locations, more than 500,000 square feet combined, hundreds of thousands of products, and over 70 countries represented, Jungle Jim's International Market is locally grown, but internationally known. We're a destination for foodies, tourists, and weekly shoppers alike; from just around the corner to across the pond and beyond. Everyone who walks through our doors can shop without borders, and they share that experience with so many others.

We're always looking for the next big thing; not just to get on the shelves or into your carts, but unique and challenging projects that will make your experience at Jungle Jim's International Market that much more memorable. Every time you walk through the doors, we want you to find something new to be excited about, and, of course, give you a reason to come back.

Store Tours

Explore the World of Food at Jungle Jim's International Market! Tour the store and enjoy food samples from around the world, explore miles of incredible sights, tastes, and smells while our knowledgeable tour guides lead you on a fun-filled, informational, and entertaining safari through the wilds of Jungle Jim's! Or, if you're looking for a bit of a challenge, try out our exciting and adventurous Scavenger Hunts! No matter what, we want you to learn about the history of Jungle Jim's International Market and what makes it so special, explore each department, and discover thousands of incredible edibles from around the world.
